

The Olde English Pocket Beagle Registry

PO Box 1285, Victoria VA 23974, USA

www.OEPBR.org

Breed Standard Reference

Olde English Pocket Beagle

Skull: fairly long, slightly domed at occiput; cranium broad, full

Eyes: large, set wide, brown or hazel; expression gentle, pleading

Stop: moderately defined

Muzzle: length medium, straight, square cut; nostrils large, open; lips free from flews

Throat: clean, free from folds of skin

Shoulders: sloping, clean, muscular, not heavy

Chest: deep, somewhat broad

Forelegs: straight, plenty of bone; elbows turning neither in nor out; knees neither knuckled forward nor bent backward

Feet: close, round, firm; pads full, hard

Ears: set low; long, reaching almost to end of nose, fairly broad, close to head, tip rounded, forward edge

turned to cheek

Neck: strong in substance; not loaded, length medium; rising free, light

Back: short, muscular, strong

Ribs: well-sprung (abundant long room)

Pasterns: short, straight

Tail: set high, slight curve over back; fairly short with brush

Loin: broad, slightly arched; hips strong, well-muscled

Stifles: strong, well-let-down

Hocks: firm, symmetrical, moderately bent, turning neither in nor out

Color: any true hound color

Coat: close, hard; length medium

Size: 12" or under; preferred 8.5" - 10.5"

